

ABOUT JIM PETRUCCI

About Founder James G. Petrucci

James G. Petrucci founded J.G. Petrucci Co., Inc. (www.jgpetrucci.com) in 1987, just one year after graduating from Princeton University where he graduated Magna Cum Laude and Co-Captained the Varsity Football Team. He has guided the Company through 20 + years of steady growth and a leadership position in the fields of Real Estate Development and Design Build Construction – in both NJ and PA.

JGPCO has developed and built over six million square feet of commercial and industrial buildings. The Company owns and manages a portfolio of approximately two and a half million square feet of space and several hundred acres of land in three states. Notable Petrucci projects in which the Company has served as Design Builder and Jim serves as Principal include Healthquest (www.healthquest-fitness.com) – a state of the art health and family fitness center and the Palace at Somerset Park (www.palacesomersetpark.com) – the region’s premier social and corporate event center.

JGPCO was an early proponent of development opportunities in the Lehigh Valley, PA and the firm is highly identifiable as a major player behind the growth of the Interstate 78 corridor. JGPCO has been honored many times for industry leadership including the 2007 Economic Development Association of NJ Franklin/Maddocks Award, 2005 Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce Community Connections Award, 2003 PA Governors Award for Excellence, 2002 Hunterdon Economic Partnership Professional Achievement Award and the 2000 American Subcontractors Association Owner of the Year Award.

J.G. Petrucci Co., Inc. makes a significant impact in the communities it serves. The firm sponsors two major charitable events annually. Crossing Borders recognizes achievement by women in Real Estate and Economic Development in support of Displaced Homemaker networks in NJ and PA. The Iron Hill Charity Golf Open raises significant funds for the LV Military Affairs Council and the NJ National Guard Family Program in support of local veterans, active duty personnel, reservists and their families.

Petrucci’s commitment to community support started early. As a junior at Delbarton School he founded a program matching high school seniors with boys from the Morris County Big Brother Big Sisters program. As a young businessman he founded an award winning program - Reading with Kids – sending professionals into local elementary schools to read with school children. Both programs continue today.

Petrucci has been honored several times for community endeavors including the 2007 St. Luke’s Hospital Shining Star Award, 2007 Lehigh Valley March of Dimes Industrial/Commercial Real Estate Award, 2007 American Conference on Diversity Humanitarian of the Year, 2005 Boy Scouts Patriots Path Council Distinguished Citizen of the Year, 2004 Displaced Homemakers of NJ Outstanding Contributions Award, and the 2003 Arc of Union County NJ Community Service Award.

Petrucci lives in Peapack, Somerset County NJ with his wife Jeanne and four children. He is a Founding Director and Vice Chairman of Team Capital Bank (www.teamcapitalbank.com) and serves as a Trustee for Delbarton School. An honorary lifetime member of the NJ Chapter of the A.C. McAuliffe Chapter of the 101st Airborne Division Association, Petrucci is also a member of the Philadelphia based Foreign Policy Research Institute (FPRI) and has sponsored various Business Roundtables on topics including the current geopolitical environment and business ethics.